One of the best roller coaster experiences out there.

Nice little story, great visuals, and a decent length.

Works really well if you get a friend to rock your chair in time with the rollercoaster movements.

Perfect for introducing your friends to VR.. Excellent experience. Really put a smile on my face. Look forward to seeing other experiences from the devs like this. My only gripe is the credits need to be untethered to the HMD. They need to be fixed so you can look up and down and read without them moving about all over the place when you move your head. Apart from that very good. Was a bit sad when it all ended tbh Definitely something worth playing multiple times.. I should have read the forum before purchasing this one. I had no trouble with Legends I. But this one requires you to select from the menu to begin. Do not buy if you have a WMR headset; the game does not recognize the controllers to start the game.. Excellent 15 minutes of beautiful, creative, amazing VR fun. The only thing I would improve on is more near collisions or jump scares during the ride.

The roller coater is something you will want to share with friends and family. There is also a challenge that unlocks after taking the coaster.

I did not have motion sickness on the most comfortable setting, except some in the challenge because I was looking all around during the ride.

Recommend on sale, because the full price is steep for a very short experience.. WMR headsets are not supported. I cannot get it to launch with the Odyssey - The lasers don't show up to point at the menus even though all other functions seem to work.... If you have a WMR headset, wait for a patch before jumping into this one.. To be honest, I do not understand the trend of these <10min vr experiences that cost more that $1 much less $6?!?!

Pros:

- Multiple comfort settings to minimize motion sickness
- Pretty graphics
- A "challenge" mode to encourage players to ride again
- The music

Cons:

- The price - The whole ride take about 7 min
